Challenges

- Staying ahead of attacks while avoiding alert fatigue
- Constant monitoring for threats that could lead to business disruption
- Limited security staff with little time or bandwidth to face new vulnerabilities
- Struggling with risk assessment for attack surface and current runbooks/policies
- Trouble managing various firewalls and rules needed to block unwanted traffic

Benefits

- Identify security gaps from all angles and remedy them with prescriptive guidance
- Decrease total cost of ownership without compromising security
- Prevent data and productivity loss by understanding and eliminating prevalent risks
- Increase visibility and monitoring through detailed alerts of suspicious activity
- Remain on the offense by proactively searching for vulnerabilities
